Xavier Jorge worked at LFIT for 21 years, overseeing the school's equipment and safety. His funeral took place on 21 August in Tokyo, attended by many teachers and colleagues, as well as parents who came to pay their respects.

The FLT remember a man of exceptional kindness, always helpful and considerate.

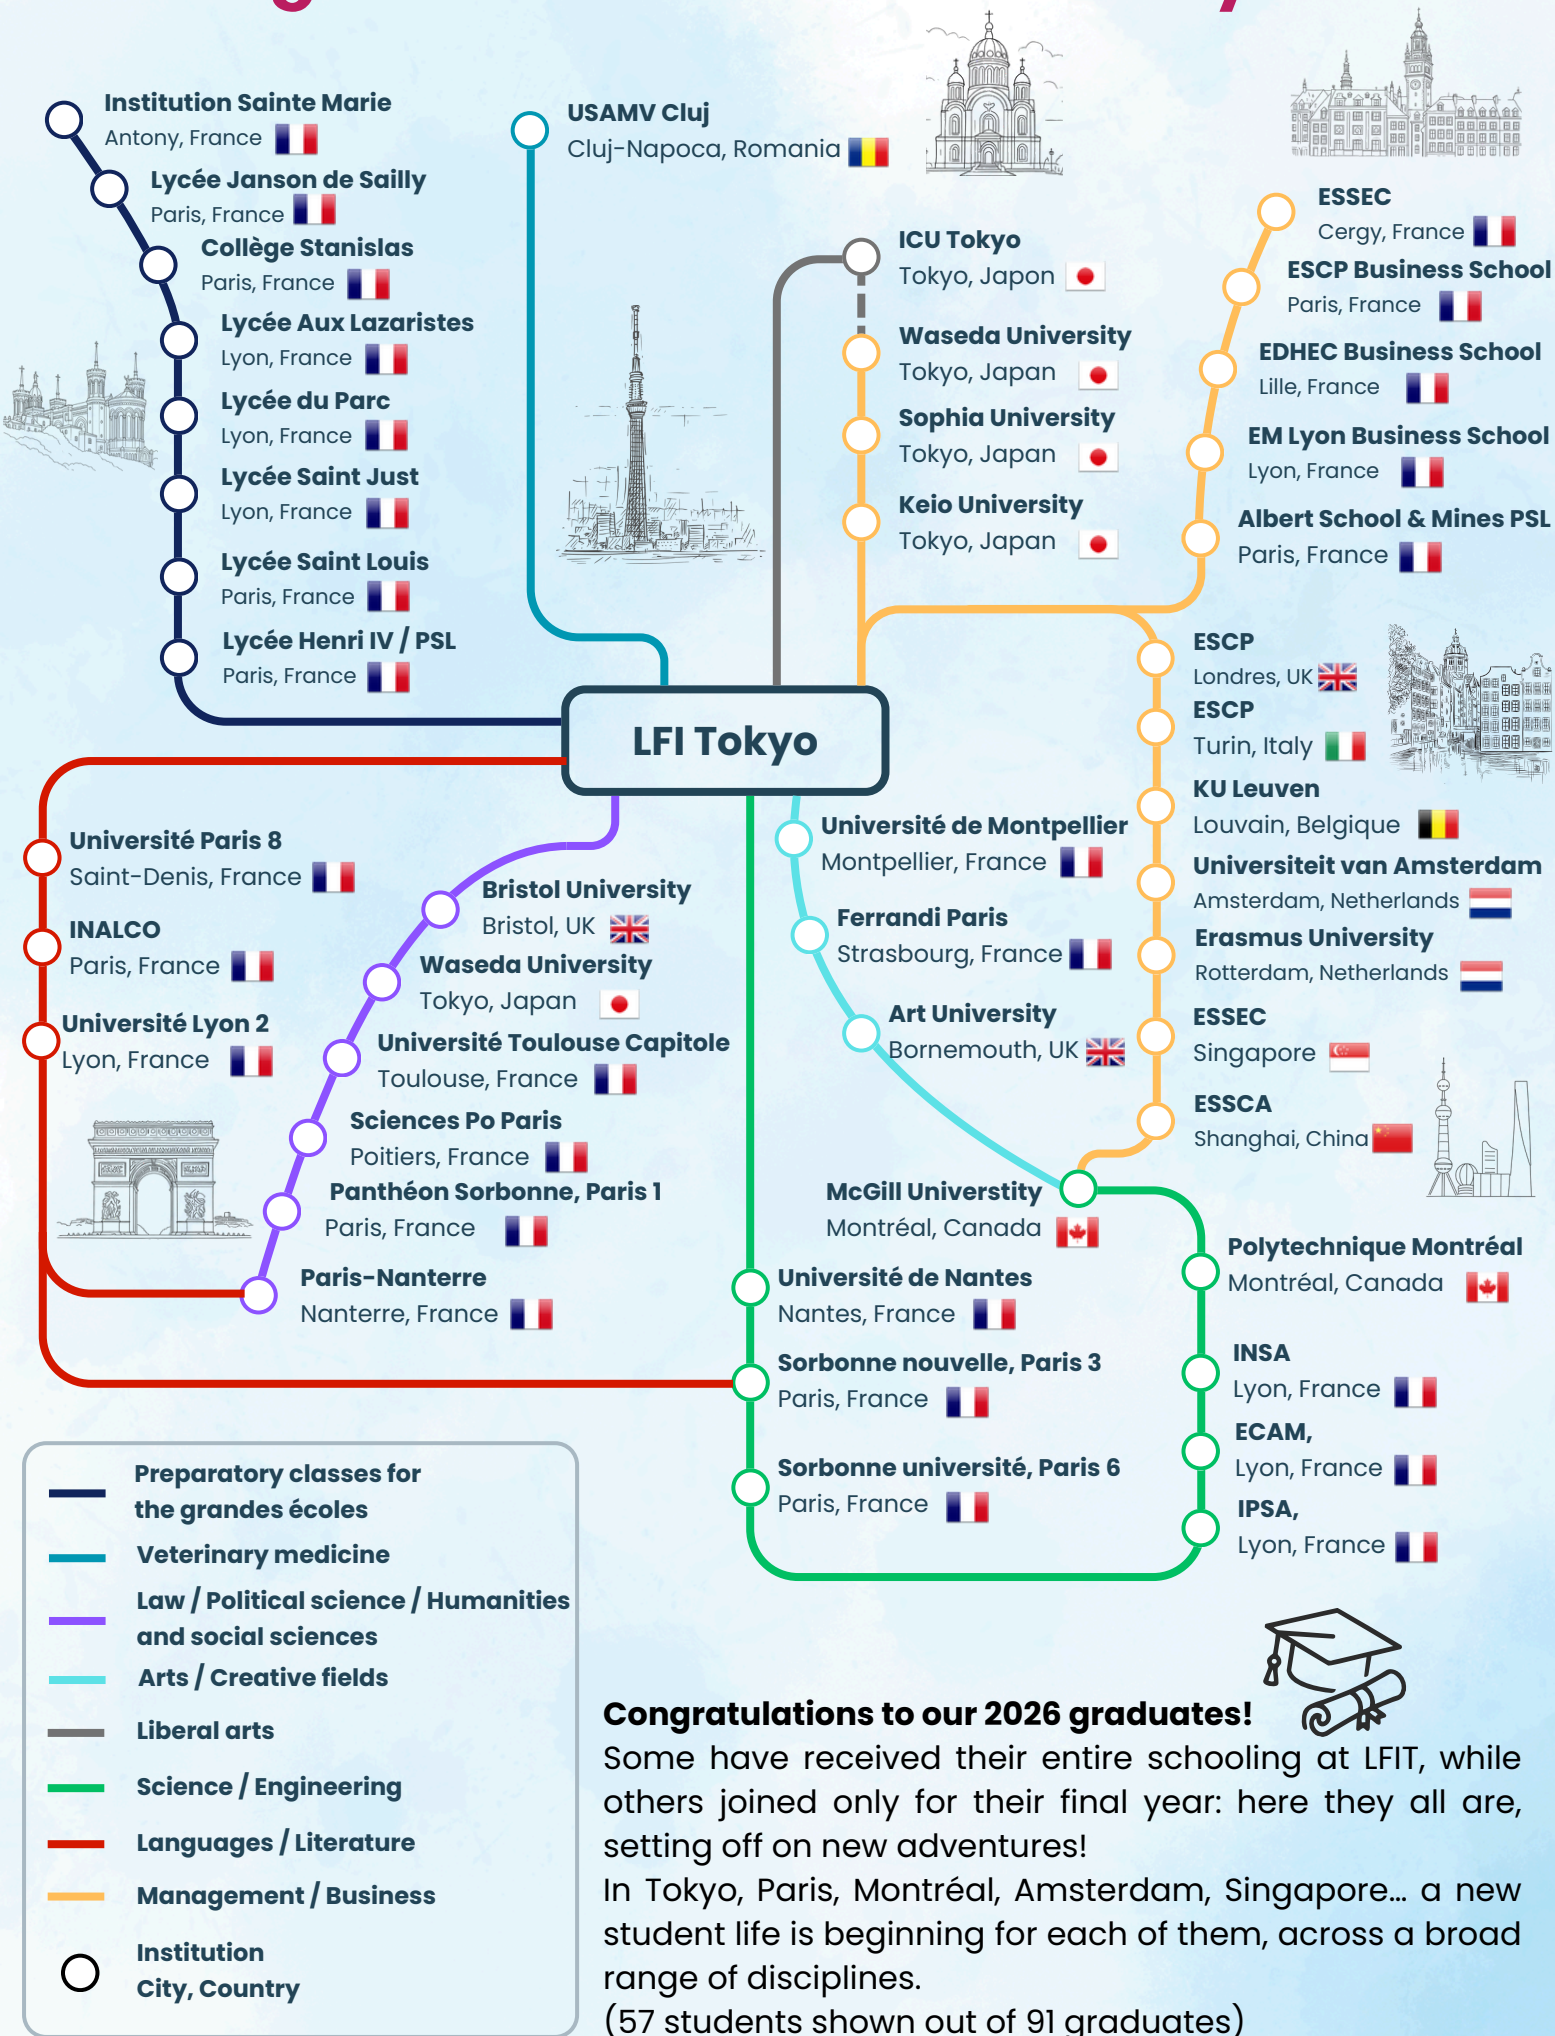

Our thoughts are with his family.

2026 graduates: where are they now ?

Congratulations to our 2026 graduates!

Some have received their entire schooling at LFIT, while others joined only for their final year: here they all are, setting off on new adventures!

In Tokyo, Paris, Montréal, Amsterdam, Singapore... a new student life is beginning for each of them, across a broad range of disciplines.

Educational projects and school trips 2026-27

Last year was rich in educational projects, including full- and half-day outings and school trips lasting several days.

School trips including overnight stays benefited 18 classes of primary, one 4eme class, all students from 1eme who travelled to Hiroshima, the Table Tennis, Football and Theatre PROZAP teams, the Asia-Pacific Basketball Cup, and the MUN or Young Ambassador projects.

This year again, many students will have the chance to go on a school trip. Here are all the projects presented in June and already approved by the School Council:

Whole-class trips:

- CM1 A, B and D will leave for Myoko Mura at the end of September.
- CM2 A and E will travel to Gotemba in November.
- Two classes of 4eme will also leave for Gotemba at the end of November.

Option classes:

- The Première and Terminale Latin students, as part of their research project for the Francophone Lycée Students' Days at the end of December, will take part in archaeological excavations in October.
- The students in the Audiovisual Cinema option will travel to Hong Kong in November to continue their exchange project with the French Lycée of Hong Kong.

Participation in PROZAP (Asia-Pacific Zone Projects):

- Basketball in Shanghai in March
- MUN in Phnom Penh
- Chess in Hanoi

As in previous years, we also expect many other projects to be proposed and approved for other students and classes!

Many thanks to the teachers who are involved in preparing and supervising these projects and trips, enabling our children to grow and learn in different ways.

The school pass: your key to reduced public-transport fares

Students can benefit from a reduced-fare pass (通学定期券) for regular journeys between home and school on public transport.

Card, proof, purchase, renewal, loss: here's the guide.

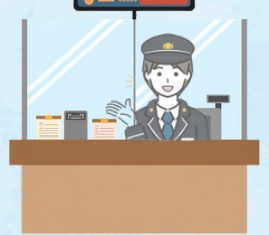

1. I buy a named transport card from the operator that manages my route to LFI Tokyo

Carte scolaire 生徒証 義務課程	Photo 写真 24x30
Classe 学年:
NOM 名前:	N°: _____
Prénom 名字:
Date de naissance 生年月日:
___ A 年 ___ M 月 ___ J 日 (âge (歳))

2. I fill in the school pass form issued by LFI Tokyo

3. I buy a "teiki" (school commuter pass) at the counter

Useful tips

- All journeys between home and LFI Tokyo are included in the pass.
- Top up your Suica/PASMO to pay for journeys outside the pass.
- Renewal: proof is generally not needed during the school year if nothing has changed.
- Watch out during the holidays: calculate carefully when choosing a 1-, 3- or 6-month pass.
- Please note: the card can also be used for purchases in shops and vending machines (drinks, snacks, sweets...)

😬 Lost your card? Don't panic!

If the card is nominative, it can be blocked and reissued at the counter. The remaining pass and card balance are retained.

👉 Report the loss to the operator as soon as possible.

Lost property: we won't give up!

Last year in review: 169 kg of lost property displayed at the school fair

For a year now, the FLT have been regularly reminding you about lost property because the problem persists and must be stopped: jackets, jumpers, trousers, T-shirts, shoes, bags, water bottles, notebooks... Behind those 169 kg are hundreds of items that never made it home.

Lost... then replaced?

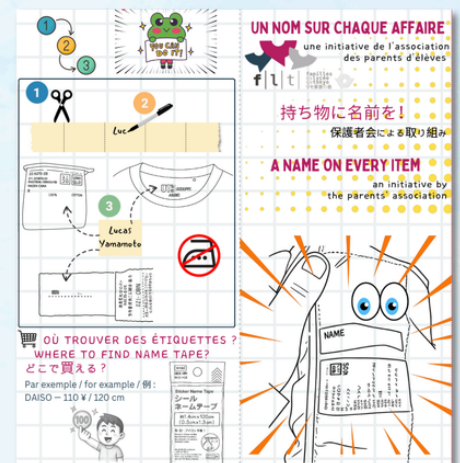

A garment left at school is sometimes simply replaced with a new purchase. For the family, that is an expense that could have been avoided; for the environment, it is one more garment to produce.

When you consider how many jackets, jumpers and other clothes are waiting for their owners, it may be worth developing a small habit before buying again: check lost property.

Primary-school parents: label everything!

At the start of the school year, the FLT provided every nursery and primary pupil with a strip of washable, durable stickers, along with an information sheet in French, English and Japanese.

Clothes, water bottles, bags, pencil cases... writing your child's name on their belongings gives them a much better chance of finding their way back to their owner.

And in secondary school?

Children grow, but their belongings still go missing!

Lost property is accessible all year round at the entrances to the primary buildings and in the secondary-school halls. A display is organised before every holiday period: it's the perfect time to check whether a jacket, jumper, bag or water bottle is waiting for its owner. Parents, remember to check before replacing anything!

And afterwards?

Our goal remains Zero lost or abandoned items: unclaimed objects will be given a second life. After the final display at the end of May, they will be entrusted to charities that redistribute them to low-income families in Tokyo.

💡 We are also considering a clothing swap, so that outgrown clothes can circulate for the benefit of families and the environment.

Exchange, reuse, keep things moving: all are ways to reduce waste.

Why have a parents' association?

The FLT Parents Association (APE) is above all a group of parents who want to be involved in school life and contribute to the well-being of all children.

Listening to families

We are here to listen to your questions, ideas, concerns and suggestions, and to liaise with the faculty team and the school whenever necessary.

Making parents' voices heard

The association represents families and carries their voice in the school's various bodies. Our aim: to foster constructive and respectful dialogue between parents and the educational team.

Taking part in school life

Throughout the year, we can also organise or take part in events and projects. For example, the FLT organise Lycée Cafés (parent get-togethers several times a year), the raffle and children's games for the school fair, workshops for children with the eco-team, and workshops for parents (helping Japanese-speaking parents support their children with French homework). We also joined the humanitarian club in raising funds for Téléthon through sales of cakes and cards made by the children.

The FLT also funded a screening for parents and some classes of a powerful film about bullying ("Un monde" by Laura Wandel).

 An APE in an international school also carries out missions such as:

- welcoming and integrating new parents from all backgrounds
- intercultural exchange (bringing the host country's culture and French culture together)
- mutual support

The FLT are reinventing themselves: imagine, propose, participate!

To encourage community initiatives, the FLT will now organise itself around two complementary areas:

Representation area

- Relations with the school
- Administrative and educational questions
- Parent representation on school bodies (primary, secondary)
- French required

Events area

- Projects for students and families
- Workshops, events and get-togethers
- Parent-led initiatives
- Multilingual participation

The association is more open than ever: whether you would like to get involved in one of these areas, join the committee, launch a project or contribute to an initiative already under way, your participation is welcome.

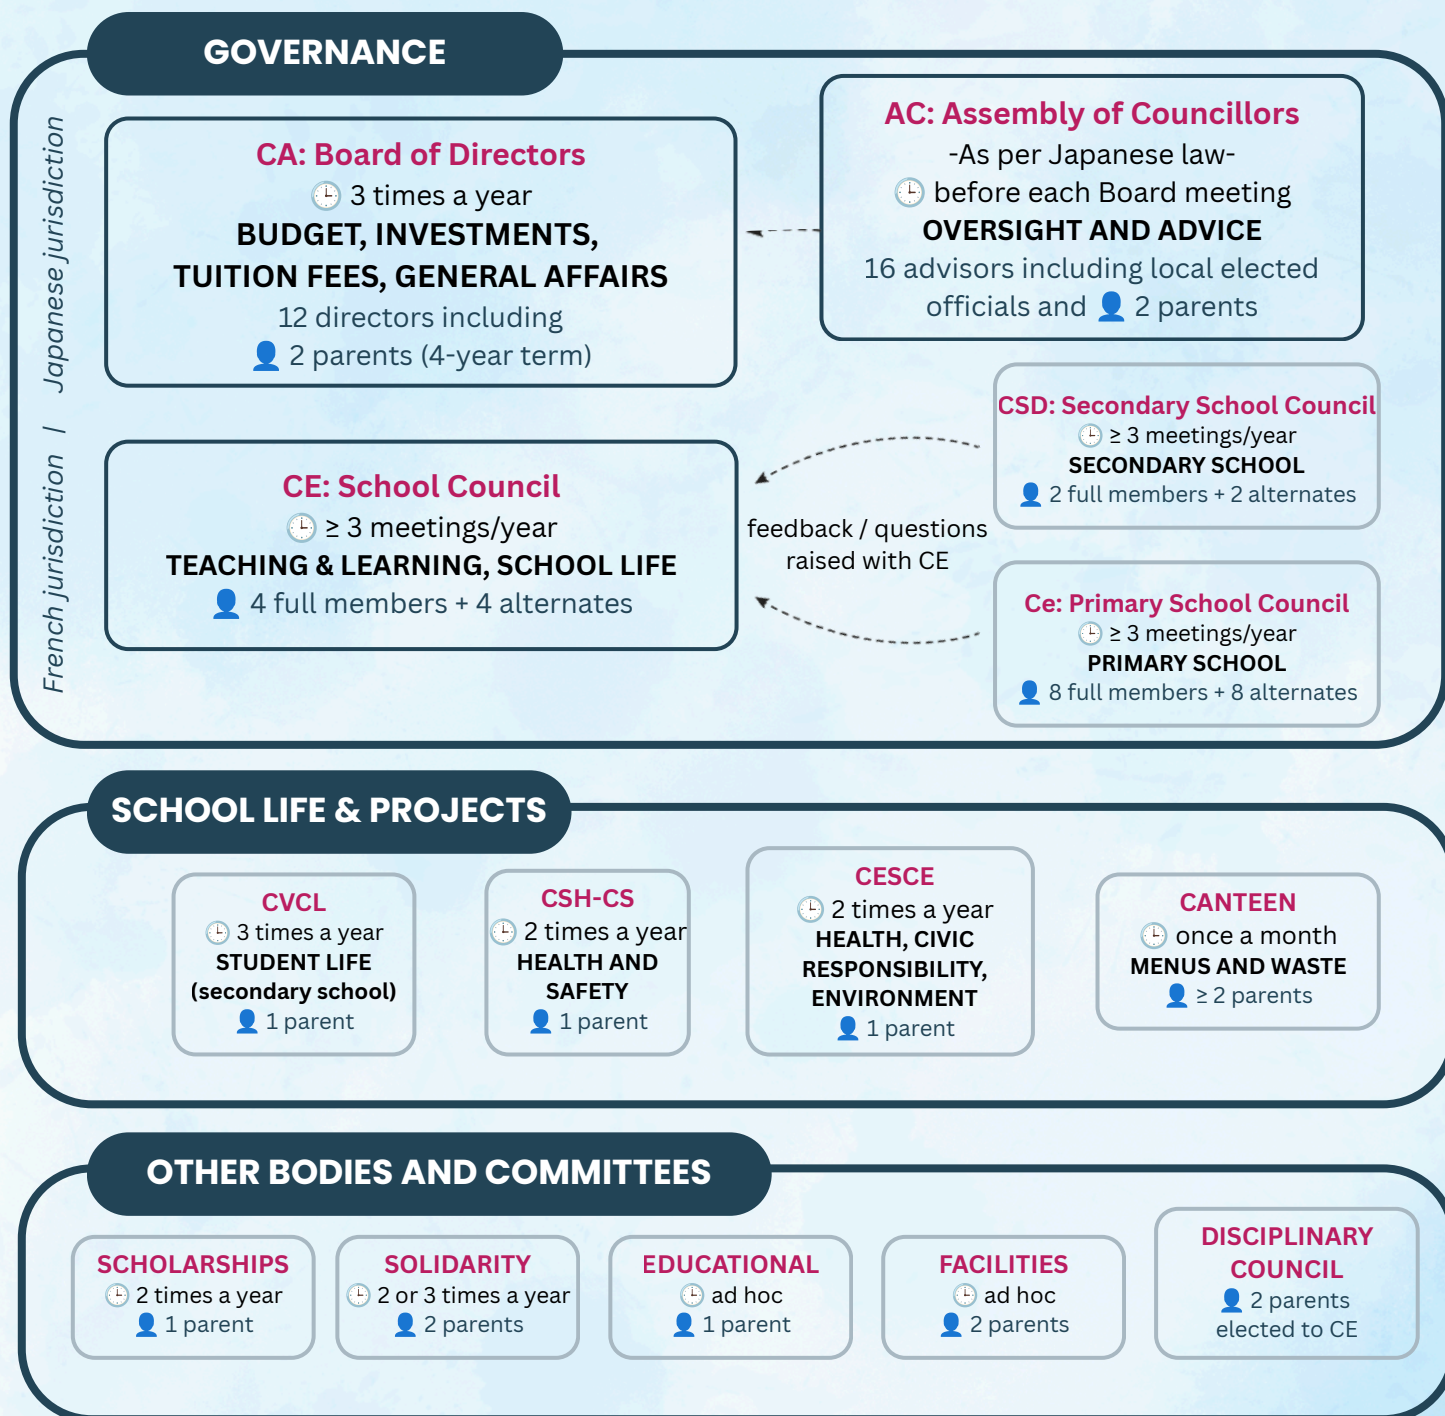

Keen to get involved? Have an idea? It could become the next FLT project. Let's talk about it now: contact us via our contact form, so that we can build it together, by and for the LFI Tokyo community and beyond. 🖱️

Overview of LFI Tokyo's governance

LFI Tokyo relies on various bodies to organise its governance, make decisions and enable different members of its community to take part in school life. Parent representatives sit on several of them, with different roles and levels of participation.

This map presents the main bodies of LFI Tokyo and gives an at-a-glance view of their role, meeting frequency and, where applicable,  parent representation.

WE, THE PARENTS

For several years, elected members of our association, the FLT, have represented all parents at every level of the school's bodies.

The FLT collect families' questions and observations, bring them to the relevant bodies, produce a report and follow up on the responses.

Inclusive education in Tokyo

Inclusive Education, EBEP, what are we talking about ?

Inclusive education aims to allow every student to benefit fully from mainstream education by being integrated into a class appropriate for their age, while taking their individual needs into account.

Students with Special Educational Needs — EBEP in French — may need adjustments to pursue their education in the best possible conditions. Whether they have a 'dys' disorder, attention difficulties, an ASD or a physical disability, LFI Tokyo welcomes and supports every student and their family, as is done in schools in France and Japan.

What does this mean in practice?

Whether a diagnosis has already been established or a difficulty is identified by the teacher, the educational team, including the teacher and family, sets out the adjustments to be provided (AESH, lift access, DAIS...) and evaluates them over time.

The FLT have been monitoring and supporting LFI Tokyo's progress for several years: creation of the EBEP coordinator role, a care room, DAIS trials, etc.

We organise meetings between parents and with the school leadership, and run a WhatsApp group for exchange and mutual support among families.

We also support families who request it in their discussions with the school leadership.

Whether you have questions about the process for your MDPH application, creating a PPS or Gevasco, the coordinator's role, or simply want to talk with families who share your everyday experience as SEN parents, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Together with the school leadership, we are organising our first Inclusive School Lycée Café of the year on October 3rd.
